Blessed are the Peacemakers
Catholic Theological Union, the largest Roman Catholic graduate school of theology and ministry in the United States, is also home to the Joseph Cardinal Bernardin Center. In the spirit of the Second Vatican Council, Catholic Theological Union prepares men and women for service to the Church, including a strong commitment to interreligious dialogue and to the work of peace and justice.

“THE PEACEMAKERS, THOSE WHO PUT AN END TO VIOLENCE, WHO LAY DOWN THE SWORD, WHO WORK FOR HARMONIOUS RELATIONSHIPS, WHO BREAK THE PATTERNS OF HATRED, WHO LOVE EVEN THEIR ENEMIES, WILL BE CALLED ‘CHILDREN OF GOD,’ THE ULTIMATE BLESSING. THESE ‘CHILDREN OF GOD’ BE THEY JEWS, CHRISTIANS, AND MUSLIMS IN THE MIDDLE EAST, OR WE GATHERED HERE, ARE MANDATED BY OUR GREAT RELIGIOUS TRADITIONS TO BE PEACEMAKERS.”
—Joseph Cardinal Bernardin, A Blessing to Each Other

OUR HONOREE

The Board of Trustees of Catholic Theological Union bestows upon Dr. Miguel H. Díaz, U.S. Ambassador to the Holy See, its “Blessed are the Peacemakers” award. This unique post was first established in 1984 by President Ronald Reagan and Pope John Paul II in recognition of the important global role the Vatican plays in issues of vital importance to the United States such as the quest for peace, world hunger, religious freedom and human rights, and rapport with the Muslim world. Through its worldwide relationships with local churches and diverse religious communities, the Vatican is considered an exceptionally informed listening post for the heartbeat of the world.

Dr. Díaz brings unique qualifications to his new diplomatic role: he is an outstanding theological scholar and a leading member of the U.S. Hispanic community, the fastest growing ethnic group in the United States and the largest single ethnic group in the U.S. Catholic community. Ambassador Díaz’s wife, Marian, is a graduate of CTU. They have four children.
