The Weber-Killgallon Center invites you, and your colleagues in catechetical ministry to Black Catholics, to explore

The Nature and Goals of Catechesis from an Africentric Perspective with Therese Wilson Favors

Friday, March 13, 2009

- 8:30 a.m. Registration and Exhibits
- 9:30 a.m. Opening Prayer and Keynote
- 12:30 p.m. Closing Prayer, followed by Lunch

Catholic Theological Union
Academic and Conference Center
5416 S. Cornell Avenue, Second Floor
Chicago, Illinois 60615

Complimentary parking available in the attached garage

Please RSVP by Sunday, March 8 to Weber-Killgallon@ctu.edu with your name, title, parish and phone number or call Keiren O’Kelly, Director of Distance Education, at 773.371.5442.
For information on overnight accommodations at CTU, contact Christine Henderson at 773.371.5403 or studentservices@ctu.edu
The Nature and Goals of Catechesis from an Africentric Perspective with Therese Wilson Favors

Friday, March 13, 2009

About Therese Wilson Favors: Therese Wilson Favors is the Director of the Office of African American Catholic Ministries for the Archdiocese of Baltimore. Mrs. Favors has extensive experience as an educator in both Catholic Schools and parish religious education programs. She is a frequent speaker and an author and editor of many works including, Rise Up and Re-Build, an educational resource commissioned by the National Black Catholic Congress. In June 2007, Pope Benedict XVI extended to Mrs. Favors the Pro Ecclesia Et Pontifice Papal Award.

The mission of the Weber-Killgallon Center at the Paul Bechtold Library at Catholic Theological Union is to promote catechetical materials that are appropriate for various cultural contexts with particular attention to the Hispanic Catholic and African-American Catholic realities.