Please join us for a showing of this documentary which explores the plight of Eastern-rite and Latin-rite Catholic Sisters under Soviet domination from the end of World War II to the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989. Filmed on location in Ukraine, Lithuania, Romania, Slovakia, Hungary, and the United States, the lives of these sisters offer powerful testimony of their deep faith and courage. Undeterred by evil forces surrounding them, they continued to live their commitment to religious life.

Sisters of St. Joseph, Margaret Nacke and Mary Savoie, who were the visionaries behind this project, will join us for the presentation and the discussion to follow. The archives at CTU’s Bechtold Library is home to the testimonies and photos used in creating the documentary. In addition, “Faces of Faith,” a traveling exhibit of photographs of featured sisters with descriptions about their lives under communism will be displayed at CTU.

For more information about this documentary please visit: www.interruptedlives.org.