Dear Prospective CTU student,

Thank you for your inquiry and your interest in the Bernardin Scholarship.

Joseph Cardinal Bernardin, the former Archbishop of Chicago, had an enormous impact on the Church and society because of his faith and spirituality, as well as the authenticity and style of his pastoral teaching and ministry.

Catholic Theological Union has established the Bernardin Center to carry forward his vision and his legacy. Our primary focus is preparing future scholars and church leaders in his spirit through study, research, pastoral reflection and public discussion.

The Bernardin Center provides full-tuition scholarships for students in the Masters of Arts in Theology (M.A.), the Professional Ministerial Master of Arts (M.A.) or the Ecumenical Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.) degree program. The Center’s director helps form these Bernardin Scholars through mentoring and colloquia on issues of importance to the Cardinal’s vision. In addition, scholars who are MA candidates are expected to commit themselves to working on one of the projects of the Center, such as the Peacebuilders Initiative, the Catholics on Call program, or various programs committed to dialogue among Jews, Christians and Muslims. Full-tuition scholarships (which do not cover any prerequisite courses) for the 2013-2014 academic year are as follows:

- Master of Arts (Theology)
- Professional Ministerial Master of Arts
  - M.A. in Biblical Ministry, Hispanic Theology and Ministry,
  - Intercultural Ministry, Justice Ministry, or Liturgy
- Doctor of Ministry

To apply for a Bernardin Scholarship, please complete and return the enclosed application form, a letter of recommendation and your responses to the essay questions. We invite you to add any other materials that might help our scholarship committee reach its decision. All application materials must be received in our office no later than March 8, 2013, for the 2013-2014 academic year. Please send your materials to:

The Joseph Cardinal Bernardin Center
Catholic Theological Union
5401 South Cornell Avenue
Chicago, IL 60615 USA

To be considered for this scholarship, applicants must have been accepted to either the M.A. degree or the D.Min. degree program at Catholic Theological Union by March 1, 2013.

Scholarship awards will be announced in April 2013. We hope to hear from you soon and look forward to working with you if you are accepted as a Bernardin Scholar for the next academic year.

Sincerely,

Ms. Sheila McLaughlin
Director

Admissions Policies for Bernardin Scholarships
2013-2014

1. Purpose of Bernardin Center

The purpose of the Bernardin Center is to prepare future scholars and church leaders in the spirit of Cardinal Bernardin through theological study and research, pastoral reflection and public discussion. The Center also fosters study and research that builds upon Cardinal Bernardin’s legacy.

2. Nature of a Bernardin Scholarship

The Bernardin Center offers full-tuition scholarships to qualified students nationally and worldwide who are committed to completing an M.A. or a D.Min. program and preparing for ministry or leadership in the Church.

In their study, Bernardin Scholars focus upon aspects of the Cardinal’s legacy and vision in the light of the Second Vatican Council, under the guidance of the Director of the Bernardin Center. Topics to focus on in an area of concentration include:

- The promotion of the vision of the Church proclaimed by the Second Vatican Council
- Peacemaking and reconciliation
- The study of key ethical issues addressed in the “consistent ethic of life”
- Religion and society
- The search for “common ground” in helping the Church address polarizing issues
- A strengthening of ecumenical and interfaith relationships, especially through Catholic-Jewish Studies, Catholic-Muslim Studies, and Jewish-Catholic-Muslim Dialogue.

3. Scholarship Program

The Bernardin Scholars must matriculate at Catholic Theological Union and may study in one of following degree programs:

- Master of Arts (Theology)
- Professional Ministerial Master of Arts
  M.A. in Biblical Ministry, Hispanic Theology and Ministry, Intercultural Ministry, Justice Ministry, or Liturgy
- Doctor of Ministry

Bernardin Scholars also participate in the Bernardin Colloquium designed to deepen their knowledge of the Cardinal’s legacy and his vision for the Church and its ministry. These mandatory sessions convene on a monthly basis, a minimum of eight sessions per academic year.

In addition, each M.A. scholar is required to complete an internship with one of the initiatives of the Center, based on the needs of the various programs and the interests and experience of the student. At the beginning of each academic year, scholars participate in an extensive orientation session where the intern opportunities are fully discussed with students. Those scholars studying in the D.Min program are called upon as resources and facilitators in the monthly colloquium sessions and/or the Center’s programs.

4. Scholarship Funding

The Bernardin Scholarship Program is made possible by the generosity of private individuals, foundations and associations whose collective gifts provide an endowment to perpetuate Cardinal Bernardin’s legacy.

The awards will be dispensed according to the following estimates for 2013-2014:

- Master of Arts (Theology) $26,388
- Professional Ministerial Master of Arts $26,388
  M.A. in Biblical Ministry, Hispanic Theology and Ministry, Intercultural Ministry, Justice Ministry, or Liturgy
- Doctor of Ministry $15,001

The scholarships do not include payment for prerequisite courses needed, nor do they pay for room, board, books, insurance and travel.

5. Candidacy for Bernardin Scholarship

In the selection process for Bernardin Scholarships, consideration will be given to the extent to which a candidate is able to commit to Cardinal Bernardin’s vision and legacy – e.g., acceptance of the Second Vatican Council, adherence to the consistent ethic of life, openness to inter-religious dialogue and the like.

More specifically, to qualify as a Bernardin Scholar, applicants will:

- Have earned a Bachelor’s degree with a G.P.A. of 3.2/4.0 or above.
- Meet the specific degree entry requirements
- Be admitted to an M.A. or doctoral degree program at CTU
- Commit to furthering the legacy of Cardinal Bernardin
- Complete the Bernardin Scholarship application and essay
- Submit a letter of recommendation
- Submit additional information to the Bernardin Center if required

Joseph Cardinal Bernardin, the late Archbishop of Chicago, made significant contributions to several areas:

- the promotion of the vision of the Church proclaimed by the Second Vatican Council,
- the study of key ethical issues addressed in the consistent ethic of life,
- the search for Catholic Common Ground in helping the Church dialogue about controversial issues of ecclesial life,
- the investigation of issues of justice, peace and reconciliation in the spirit of the U.S. bishops’ pastoral letter on peace, and
- the strengthening of ecumenical and interfaith dialogue and relationships.

Recommender Information

The person named above has applied for a full tuition Bernardin Scholarship to Catholic Theological Union. S/he has given your name as one who will evaluate her/his potential for theological study and for ministry. It will be most helpful if you give candid forthright answers to the following questions. We believe that a good reference will point to the student’s weaknesses and limitations as well as strengths. In your letter, please include the name of the prospective student, your name, position, address, phone number, e-mail address, and indicate whether or not you recommend this person for the Bernardin Scholarship.

A. How long and in what capacity have you known the applicant?

B. Please write about the applicant’s intellectual qualities and ability to do graduate academic work.

C. How would you assess this applicant’s character, aims, and values? What gifts and special strengths for ministry/service does this applicant bring? Are there areas of growth or concern of which we should be aware?

D. Comment on the applicant’s approach and abilities in any or all of the following areas:

   - ability to work with diversity
   - approach to conflict
   - communication skills
   - capacity for empathy
   - interpersonal relationships

   - leadership within the community
   - working style
   - sense of call for ministry/service
   - willingness to seek outside resources and assistance
   - commitment to justice
