In consultation with the National Leadership Roundtable on Church Management, Catholic Theological Union (CTU) presents Critical Skills for Pastoral Leadership: Enhancing Management through Practical Wisdom. The seminar has expanded to three-and-a-half days to allow pastoral leaders additional time to reflect on their experience and enhance their skills for management and leadership.

Tuesday, May 31 – Friday, June 3, 2016

- $650 (includes room and board)*
- $500 commuter (includes lunch)*
- Single day pricing available online

The program is open to all men and women, ordained and professed, as well as lay, who serve in a leadership capacity in church or congregational ministry. It will be especially beneficial for those in new positions of pastoral leadership. The following topics will be presented and discussed:

- Theology of Leadership and Management – Stephen Bevans, SVD
- Mission Integration and Organizational Ethics – Gina Wentzel Wolfe
- Planning and Visioning – Paul Michalenko, ST
- Finances – Jim Lundholm-Eades
- Personnel Management/Team Building – Edward Tlucek, OFM
- Human Resources Management – Betsy Pawlicki, OP
- The Ministry of Fundraising and Development – Georgette Lehmuth, OSF, and Paulette Karas
- General Management Questions and Answers – Jim Lundholm-Eades

Space is limited.
Register by April 30, 2016.
* A $50 fee will be assessed for registrations after April 30.

To register, visit www.ctu.edu/skills-for-leadership.

For more information contact:
Paul Michalenko, ST, Facilitator
pmichalenko@ctu.edu
773.595.4043
Stephen Bevans, SVD
Stephen Bevans, SVD, is the Louis J. Luzbetak, SVD, Professor Emeritus of Mission and Culture at CTU. He is Past President of the American Society of Missiology and past member of the Board of Directors of the Catholic Theological Society of America. Steve is one of the three official Vatican representatives to the World Council of Churches’ Commission on World Mission and Evangelism.

Gina Wentzel Wolfe
Gina Wentzel Wolfe is Associate Professor of Catholic Theological Ethics at CTU. She is also a Senior Wicklander Fellow at the Institute for Business and Professional Ethics, DePaul University. She was Christopher Chair in Business Ethics in the Brennan School of Business Dominican University, Illinois, and she is Co-Editor of Ethics and World Religions: Cross-cultural Case Studies.

Paul Michalenko, ST
Paul Michalenko, ST, is the Director of the Institute of Religious Formation at Catholic Theological Union. Paul served as a facilitator and organizational consultant to many faith-based and nonprofit groups over the past thirty years. He has facilitated reconfiguration processes, assemblies, chapters, and pastoral planning and visioning processes.

Jim Lundholm-Eades
Jim Lundholm-Eades is Director of Program and Services for the National Leadership Roundtable on Church Management. Previously he was Director of Parish Services and Planning for the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis. Jim has also been Associate Director of Catholic Education for the Archdiocese of St. Paul and Minneapolis and Director of Catholic Social Services in a diocese in his home country, Australia.

Edward Tlucek, OFM
Ed Tlucek, OFM, is pastor of Holy Name Parish in Cedar Lake, Indiana. He is in his eighth year of service to his Province as a member of the Provincial Administration. In addition to parochial ministry, Fr. Ed has served on the staff of St. Francis Retreat Center in Burlington, Wisconsin and as general manager of the Province's printery in Pulaski, Wisconsin.

Betsy Pawlicki, OP
Since 2007, Betsy Pawlicki, OP, has worked as Associate General Counsel for the Illinois Education Association, advocating for teacher rights and quality public education. She was inspired to pursue law while serving as a neighborhood center director for Catholic Charities in New Orleans’ Ninth Ward. She has also worked in adult literacy, ESL, and student affairs.

Georgette Lehmuth, OSF
Georgette Lehmuth, OSF, has been President/CEO of National Catholic Development Conference (NCDC) since July 2001. Prior to this position she served as Development Director and member of the Leadership Team of her religious institute. In 2014, Sr. Georgette was named for the 9th consecutive year by The Nonprofit Times as one of the “Power and Influence Top 50” in the nonprofit sector.

Paulette Karas
Paulette Karas is Co-Director of Development for the Marist Brothers and has been a member of the department since its inception. Together with Br. Hugh Turley, Paulette co-directs a comprehensive development and fundraising program for the Province of the United States. Paulette is a CFRE and currently serves on the Board of Directors of Marist High School in Chicago, Illinois. She is also the former Chair of the NCDC Board of Directors.