THE HESBURGH SABBATICAL PROGRAM AND
THE INSTITUTE OF RELIGIOUS FORMATION

fall 2011
spring 2012
Dear Friends,

You are invited to join the Institute of Religious Formation and the Hesburgh Sabbatical Program for some of the presentations and workshops that are part of these two outstanding programs at Catholic Theological Union. These are golden opportunities that will deepen your spirituality, help you to focus your faith, and inform your own ongoing formation.

While the IRF and Hesburgh participants are encouraged to take advantage of the many resources at CTU, we also encourage all those connected to the CTU community to take advantage of the many resources of our programs. Please take note that the IRF Sessions and IRF Practicums are intended for those of you who are in the ministry of formation for religious life and priesthood. We extend a special invitation to you!

Please browse our current Open Sessions catalog and come be part of this rich experience!

irf practicums for formators only
Communication takes place at many levels and is dependent upon a number of factors. These two sessions will explore good communication including feedback in order to enhance one’s communication skills.

These two sessions will look at the stages of development and group theory as it applies to formation communities. Included is a focus on the role of formator as facilitator.

New theories about positive approaches are having a wide impact on personal and organizational change. These theories are explored with practical application to formation ministry.

4 & 11 April 2012
9am—Noon; $70

Assessment Tools (Personal Growth Plan)
Paul Michalenko, ST
This session explores tools for systematically assessing a person in formation and creating continuity between the various stages of formation.

18 April 2012
9am—Noon; $35

Systems Thinking
Paul Michalenko, ST
Formation is a component of a larger organizational system. Systems’ thinking helps to understand the influences that the system has on the formator and formation community and appropriate responses.
